

A Movement Intervention for Young Children with Autism Spectrum Disorder

Seeking research participants:
Young children with autism between 2- 5 years old

Young children with autism between 2- 5 years old and their parent(s)/caregiver(s) are invited to participate in a study aimed to understand the benefits of an 8-week movement program for young children with autism

For more information please contact:
Megan MacDonald, PhD (primary investigator) megan.macdonald@oregonstate.edu or 541- 737- 6928

School of Biological & Population Health Sciences Movement Studies in Disability